ALAYNA BRIANNE BOWMAN

SCHOLARSHIP

"Always Be Brave"

CHS Indian Princess

The $1,000 Scholarships are offered in memory of Alayna Brianne Bowman, Class of 2011. Alayna was a Choctawhatchee High School editor of the Smoke Signals Newspaper, and an Anchor for the WBGI Tribal News Team. She served as the school mascot "Indian Princess", Senior Class Spirit Coordinator, and Historian for the Inter Club Council. She was a member of Wheellette Service Club, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, War Chiefs Spirit Club, Link Crew, and Diamond Dolls. She served on the Okaloosa County Leadership Counsel, and was a member of the Extreme Etiquette Cotillion Organization. Alayna was a contestant in the Miss CHS Pageant for three years. She was a true and dedicated Indian. School spirit was very important to Alayna. She had faith in God, family and her country. This scholarship is awarded to a student representing Choctawhatchee High School who best demonstrates a similar balance between, academics, school spirit, leadership, community service and Christian Faith. The Scholarship hopes to recognize those well-rounded individuals who demonstrate the perseverance to improve themselves in all aspects of their life while enjoying God's gifts to the fullest.
